

Survey of Current Events within the UMC

Over the past year, we have all witnessed many news reports about the division within the United Methodist Church (UMC) on the interpretation of the Book of Discipline and scripture. Highland Valley understands this issue requires a community discussion. We understand that you may have questions about the state of the UMC in Arkansas. We want to keep our church informed on these current events. Most importantly, we want to know how you feel about these issues.

Please feel open to share your thoughts and know that your opinion is respected, appreciated, and is powerful in God's Kingdom. Your response will not be tied to your name nor any other information. No responses will be shared publicly. Please complete the survey once.
